Dear your Honor Judge Castel

My name is Alexia Añ, I am eighteen years old. I am writing this letter for my father considering my relationship with him, and I realize his legal situation. I know that Dad did wrong however I watch him cry all the time because he is sorry. This is hurting everyone.

I work with young children in the East Hampton School District. I have two jobs, I have gone through all of the steps of finger printing so I am able to work with all of the children, I currently work with kindergarden through fifth grade.

Dad was and still is a big influence in my life. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He taught me I can do anything If I try I was mainstreamed and because of his and my mothers belief I overcame so many things and I am proud to make my parents proud. All my life my father has done so many acts of kindness.

He's jumped into burning cars, fed the hungry - coats and warm clothes for anyone who needed it. So many children who's parents didn't care stayed with us. my parents worked together to make sure they were fed - clothed and back in school. with the help of the Juvenile Officer, all were reunited with their parents and abuse stopped.

Mom needs Dad.

Please your Honor. be lenient with Dad. I am afraid for mom. we are poor. and Dad has always provided. I know he will always continue in good deeds. He will continue to become the search and rescue diver.

I just want him home. I don't want to lose mom. I have been brought up in a loving home. I have watched my parents work as a team. Now mom is alone. Dad cries a lot. He is sorry. I know he is afraid for grandma and mom, for they have been together 35 years, So again I ask the court to have mercy and bring him home soon

Yours truly

Alexia Kathryn Prê

P.S. wrighting this letter is extremely hard for me because there are so many happy memorys of our famliy together, and even of just him and I. that my emotions are so overwhelming that I cant even describe it on paper. So I ask you a final time, let him make this better, he wants to make this better, and let him come home soon.

Thank you.
